

Brian Soi

DT >> 6'4 >> 310 >> #54 Utah State University

Key Points of Interest

- ◆ A big, aggressive defensive lineman with incredible talent and a huge upside.
- ◆ Shown the ability to stuff the run and pressure the quarterback by getting off the ball quickly and penetrating.
- ◆ Takes up two blockers and his presence in the middle opens up the outside for the ends.
- ◆ Versatile lineman that can put on extra weight to play the middle in a 3-4 defense.
- ◆ An athletic and fluid prospect that shows the ability to change directions well.
- ◆ Originally signed with BYU in 2003
- ◆ No serious injuries to report and has never had surgery.
- ◆ Has never been arrested and is a solid citizen off the field.

➤ 2006 Season

- ◆ Academically Ineligible...Attended classes at Utah Valley State College in Provo, Utah.
- ◆ Named 2nd Team Pre-Season All-WAC by Football.com.

➤ 2005 Season – Utah State University

- ◆ Amassed 31 tackles, including 4.5 sacks and 7.5 tackles for loss, and a blocked field goal.
- ◆ Named 3rd Team Freshman All-American and All-WAC Honorable Mention.
- ◆ Key Games: San Jose St. (10/8/05), Alabama (10/29/05), and Utah (9/10/05)

➤ 2004 Season – Utah State University

- ◆ Redshirt

➤ 2003 Season – Hargrave Military Academy (Chatham, VA)

- ◆ Had a very successful season in which he displayed his sheer dominance
- ◆ Proved that he can locate to a new area, with no immediate family nearby, and still be a very effective football player.
- ◆ While at Hargrave, he was recruited by Florida St., Virginia Tech and Miami.
- ◆ See the following story to learn more about his stay at Hargrave:
<http://story.scout.com/a.z?s=208&p=2&c=194767>

Key Quote

"Brian Soi is an incredible football player." Tom McMahon, former Utah State Defensive Line Coach, currently coaching with the Atlanta Falcons.

Prep (2000-01)

Highly decorated prep player at Timpview H.S. in Orem, Utah...a national top 100 defensive line prospect...SuperPrep Magazine ranked him as the number two defensive tackle prospect in the nation and an Elite 50 selection...Rivals.Com ranked him as the 14th best defensive tackle in the country...Earned All-American honors by Student Sports, Inc. and Prep Star...Two-time all-state selection and a three-time all-region pick...recorded 15 sacks as junior and 11 sacks as a senior...Received numerous scholarship offers including USC, Nebraska, Tennessee, and Oregon.

Personal

Born May 3, 1985 in Honolulu, Hawaii...Son of Motusaga and Ponaivao Soi...has two brothers and one sister.

Represented by: Maximum Sports Agency

President: Max Hannemann

1942 Dole St.

Honolulu, HI 96822

Phone: (808) 222-7551

Fax: (808) 947-4265

max@maximumsportsagency.com

<http://www.maximumsportsagency.com>